

Student Codes of Conduct

PLAGIARISM

Quoting directly from any source of material, including other Students' work and materials purchased from research consultants without appropriately citing the source and identifying the quoted material. Knowingly citing an incorrect source using ideas (i.e., material other than information that is common knowledge) from any source of material, including other students' work and materials purchased from research consultants without citing the source and identifying the borrowed material.

The instructor is expected to establish any guidelines for plagiarism and should make clear to the student their individual responsibilities on assignments.

DAMAGE/VANDALISM

Damage, destruction or abuse of personal or College property and/or premises shows a serious lack of respect for others and for the College community. Violators may be subjected to criminal prosecution and College discipline action. Restitution for cost of damages in addition to a fine may be assessed.

DECEPTION

Deception is defined as any attempt to avoid meeting the stated course conditions, such as making false statements to avoid taking examinations at the scheduled times or to avoid turning in assignments at scheduled times. Disciplinary action may result.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Engaging in conduct which is offensive or presents a risk of harm to self, property, or other persons at any time and may result in disciplinary action.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

Old Sun Community College will not tolerate the use of illegal Drugs or Alcohol on Old Sun Community College buildings and the grounds. Any persons caught selling or using illegal drugs may be reported to the RCMP (Police). Any persons who are intoxicated will be asked to leave the school premises.

DANGEROUS OBJECTS

Possession and/or use of any dangerous object or weapon, such as fireworks, ammunition, firearms or any other explosives, any type of pyrotechnics, knives, BB guns, sabers, or any object that could endanger a member of the College community, is prohibited and will result in disciplinary action.

BULLYING

Any form of bullying at Old Sun Community College will not be tolerated. Those found bullying will be withdrawn from Old Sun Community College and not be allowed to register for one year.
